New Community Campus

Share in the excitement of realizing a dream

On Sunday, September 8, from 12:30 pm to 4:00 pm, the entire community is invited to a Sneak Preview of the new Ottawa Jewish Community Campus located on the Broadview/Kerr site.

This event will be combined with the Jewish Community Centre's Registration Day – a fun-filled carnival of activities highlighting the JCC's many programs. Everyone who becomes a JCC member on this day only will receive a 10% membership discount, a coupon book of program discounts and a chance to win the first official membership of the new JCC.

This will be an opportunity for everyone to tour the site of the new JCC, see where the future Hillel Lodge will be built and visualize a renewed and upgraded education facility. The community recently took possession of the former St. Basil School, the parcel of land which is the key to the development of the New Jewish Community Campus. "I was struck by what a beautiful piece of property it is," says Francie Greenspoon, chair of Sneak Preview Day.

Plan to take part in an exciting day of activities which will give the community a vision of much more than the shape and location of our new buildings. This event will also provide a sense of the excitement and ruach our new campus will engender.

The rooms of the new JCC will be roped off and people will be invited to "come in" and participate in the activities those rooms will someday house. Experience water play on the site of the new aquatic centre, arts and crafts in the children's lounge, fun activities in the teen lounge and more. Participate in aerobics or square dancing in the gym, eat in the kosher food court, and play bingo in the Social Hall.

Many of the activities reflect the JCC's commitment to emphasizing the "J" in JCC. You will be able to watch a demonstration of "weaving the past into the future", a new JCC program of tallit weaving. Kids can make mezuzah covers. Adults can learn a new Jewish song or Israeli dance.

Other activities will include a golf clinic, basketball clinic, baseball game, wheelchair basketball and a skateboard and BMX bike show. Imagine a birthday party at the new JCC as your children watch Allan Greenberg's magic show or try their skills in the batting cage.

JCC Executive Director Ann Lynn Lipton marvels at "the community's response to the dream of building a new JCC. On this day we can truly celebrate and share our hopes for the future Jewish Community Campus." Her thoughts are echoed by JCC President Ron Prebogan: "It will be a great event for the Centre and for the entire community. It's a wonderful way for the community to see what we can achieve."

As you stand in the future lobby of the new JCC you will be able to look out at the site of the future home of Hillel Lodge. Executive Director of Hillel Lodge, Stephen Schneiderman is looking forward to Sneak Preview Day when he can stand on that site and envision where "our dreams will be realized and Hillel Lodge will stand as an integral part of the new Jewish Community Campus. Imagine our schools, our home for the aged, our JCC all together as a part of the new campus, not apart as we are now."

Irving Greenberg, president of Hillel Lodge, says: "I welcome the preview as an opportunity for all our supporters to share in the excitement of being present on the site of our future Hillel Lodge and I urge everyone to attend on September 8."

In sharing his thoughts on the community's progress, Community Capital Campaign Chair Roger Greenberg says: "Our community has come a long way towards realizing the financial goal of the Our Dream, Our Legacy, however our work is not complete until every person in our community has made a financial contribution to the campaign. Only by making a financial contribution will people feel a true sense of ownership, of belonging to this collective dream. And let me emphasize that when a gift reflects that person's ability to give, they can truly see themselves as a member of this Kehila – community."

COMMENTARY

What can one person do to help change the future?

VAAD REPORT

LAWRENCE GREENBERG
PRESIDENT, VAAD HA'IR

Did you know that our community is in the midst of a campaign to determine your future? Did you know our community is engaged in the most critical fundraising campaign in its organized history? The Community Capital Campaign to build a new Jewish Community Campus is critical if we are to have the modern facilities through which our people can be served, cared for and educated.

For the Ottawa Jewish Community to move into the next century and provide you with quality services, it cannot remain where it is today. Failure to adapt to the growing needs of our community will result in the almost certain demise of our Jewish Community Centre and Hillel Lodge and a diminished Jewish way of life.

History has shown when community institutions fail and wither, so goes the community. As these institutions weaken, becoming islands unto themselves, future generations of young Jews drift toward activities in the unaffiliated/secular community.

Our community deserves to have the very best of facilities and services for all ages. I know most of you will agree that we need these new facilities. Many will realize that investing in the future takes more than words alone, it means investing your money.

We are all responsible for each other, as a community and as a people. It is no small task to undertake a campaign to build and assure a quality future for a Jewish community. We can turn only to ourselves for financial support, energy and involvement. No other community will come to our aid. No other people will assist us. Every one of us must contribute what we can if the community is to prosper.

Who is responsible for the future of a Jewish community? In short, all Jews. There is no "Jewish Bank of Commerce" for our community to go to for the purpose of funding this capital project. So what can one person do you may ask? By demonstrating goodness, one becomes more human, more Jewish. By giving what you can, you set the example for others to follow.

The Capital Campaign has touched many lives so far. A young girl, having read the Bulletin and Campaign Update newsletters, having heard her parents discuss the importance of the campaign, asked what she could do to help. After examining possibilities, she offered to donate the cash equivalent of one candy bar each month for five years for a total pledge of $45. A Bar Mitzvah boy who, with his parents will soon be moving to Europe, nevertheless, still wanted to do something for the Ottawa Jewish Community. He wanted to give something back, do something positive, be a 'mensch'. He gave $100 to the Capital Campaign out of gifts he received in honor of his Bar Mitzvah. Many families are giving at levels they never expected . . . "I know I gave to my capacity and that makes me feel I did the right thing."

Thousands will soon have the opportunity to give during the August 26-29 Capital Campaign Phone-a-thon, the windup event of the Capital Campaign. I hope you will follow the example of those who have already participated. When you receive the call to participate in the Campaign, please be generous (a pledge to the Capital Campaign is payable over five years). It is only with all members of the Ottawa Jewish Community participating to the best of their ability that we can ensure that our community will remain vibrant and strong. What we do as individuals for our community will serve as a lasting record of achievement and inspiration, impacting many for generations to come.

For more information concerning the Community Capital Campaign, feel free to call me or Abe Wasserberger at the Capital Campaign Office (789-7306, ext. 254).

Health issues of special interest to immigrant group

By Beverly Grostern
Volunteer Coordinator

When the members of the Senior Immigrant Group gathered once again for their social Sunday afternoon in tbe Simcha Room of Agudath Israel they had many items on their agenda and much to look forward to as they entered the room. As always they were excited about seeing one another and catching up on what has been happening in their lives.

Of special interest, however, this session was the guest speaker, Jane Brownrigg, RN of the Heart Institute of the Ottawa Civic Hospital. As part of the Heart Check Program she spends much of ber time educating interested people in the dos and don'ts of maintaining a healtby heart and lifestyle. With the help of our tried and true translator Lena Swerdlova, all the salient points were conveyed to the very attentive audience. A slide presentation helped to reinforce all tbe pertinent information. It was obviously a very timely presentation because tbere were many questions.

As always we try to end the afternoon on a lighter note and to that end Isaac Muzikansky entertained the group with his very special music. He was accompanied by a recent immigrant, Yitzak Nayvelt, and together they got the group dancing and singing. The afternoon always draws to a close with lots of socializing and great snacks.

In August the group will be taken on a tour of Ottawa and the Parliament Buildings. Early in September,a special session has been organized by JFS for recent immigrants to learn more about tbe upcoming High Holy Days. Rabbi Arnold Fine will lead the session.

We are looking forward to many more interesting and stimulating sessions for this very eager group. If you know of anyone who would like to join us either as a participant or as a volunteer please call Valerie (789-1800).

Holocaust Education Week in Ottawa

Exhibit features rescue of Danish Jews

By Elly Bollegraaf
Coordinator and Chair
Holocaust Education Week

The Ottawa Shoah (Holocaust) Remembrance Committee is launching its first annual Holocaust Education Week this fall. Three separate events are being planned over a period of almost seven weeks around the the theme "Taking Responsibility".

The first event will feature the Danish produced exhibit "October 1943 – The Rescue of the Danish Jews from Annihilation", which tells the very moving and incredible story of the Jews of Denmark being rescued en masse from certain death at Nazi hands by their non-Jewish neighbors. The exhibition will be presented at two locations:

- From October 18 to November 13, at the Ottawa Public Library, 120 Metcalfe Street, where it will be open to the public during regular library hours.
- From November 14 to December 4, at the Jewish Community Centre, 151 Chapel Street, where it will be open to members of the Jewish community and school groups. A 14-minute video is available to the schools for viewing by students prior to coming to the exhibit.

There will be knowledgeable guides on hand as well as individuals who were personally involved in the rescue. Anne and Charles Steiner of Prescott, and Edgar Ziegler, who lives in Nepean, were all born in Czechoslovakia, but had fled to Denmark to join Youth Aliya in preparation for going to Palestine. They will describe how the Danes helped them escape the Nazis by taking them, along with thousands of other Jews, to Sweden.

The official opening of the exhibit will be on October 24 at 7:00 pm at the Ottawa Public Library. Dr. Hans Mollier, a professor of Scandinavian Literature at McGill University who was personally involved in the rescue operations in October 1943, will be the guest speaker. The Danish ambassador, His Excellency Jorgen Behnke, will also be in attendance. Since the auditorium has a limited seating capacity, guests are encouraged to arrive early to ensure entry.

The second component is a video "Courage to Care" detailing the activities of several Danish righteous gentiles, which will be screened to the non-Jewish community in various churches during the month of November. The Reverend Tom Sherwood, co-chair with Rabbi Arnold Fine of the Christian-Jewish dialogue group, is coordinating this effort. There may be opportunities to follow the viewing of the video with discussions about the motives and actions of the rescuers, and the reactions of the survivors to the awesome risks and responsibilities that their rescuers took in the face of extreme danger.

The third event will be a Holocaust Education Workshop for teachers, which will be held on November 7 at 7:00 pm at the Jewish Community Centre, 151 Chapel Street. This informative workshop will include speakers, discussion sessions, resource staff and displays. Teachers interested in educational kits, resource materials and guidance on Holocaust education presentation will find this a worthwhile event to attend.

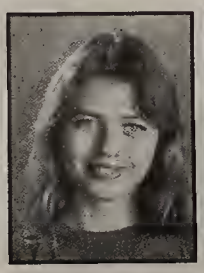
This year, raise the bottom line.



Your increased gift to the UJA Ottawa Campaign is a bottom line choice.
A choice that is reflected everyday in the faces of the men, women and children it serves.
Every dollar you give translates into services you will provide.
Every dollar you don't give translates into another Jew left alone, hungry or scared. Choose to help. Raise the bottom line.

The UJA Ottawa Campaign is at the heart of a sacred Jewish trust to build, strengthen and care for our community around the world. Keep that trust . . . At home, in Israel and in 58 countries, no gift touches more lives.

By Geri Migicovsky

Dr. Norman Barwin has announced that the Canada-Israel Cultural Foundation (CICF) will launch a fascinating book of poetry and present an exciting new poet at the opening meeting on Sunday, September 8, at 7:00 pm at the home of Sara and Zeev Vered, 839 Melwood Avenue.

The new book Jerusalem: An Anthology of Jewish Canadian Poetry, edited by Seymour Mayne and Glen Rotchin, includes poems by major Canadian Jewish poets who, like other Jewish poets through the ages, have been enchanted and inspired by Jerusalem.

Seymour Mayne will be in attendance to read and discuss the poems. Mayne is the author, editor or translator of more than 30 books. In 1990 he received the American Translators Association Award, and his poetry collection, Killing Time, won the 1994 Jewish Book Committee Prize.

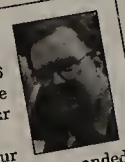
OTTAWA JEWISH COMMUNITY CAPITAL CAMPAIGN
PHONE-A-THON

Our Dream Our Legacy
Community Capital Campaign

"Answer the Call"

"Make a real and positive difference."



Dear Friends,

We look forward to speaking with you during our Phone-A-Thon scheduled to take place August 26 through 29 from 6 pm to 9 pm. Community volunteers will be giving their time to involve you in this very important event in the life of our community. Participation by everyone is critical.

We must all respond to the challenge if we are to reach our goal of building a new home for our Jewish community. The expanded Campus will usher in a new era. It will be the place where all Jews, regardless of affiliation, can gather for programs and services. It will be a legacy to our children and grandchildren. It will be a shining example of how we care and nurture our young, families and elderly.

Your financial support of the Capital Campaign is necessary if we are to reach our goal of $13 million. Please consider pledging $500 this year, and for each of the next four years, for a total of $2,500. All contributors at this level will be recognized with a plaque, placed on the Wall of Honor in the lobby of the new JCC.

Alternatively, at the level of .98 per day over five years totaling $1800, your family name will be inscribed in a Distinctive Parchment Book of Life and recorded on the "Page of Life" as a "Chai" donor. This book will be centrally located in the lobby of the new JCC, next to the Wall of Honor, commemorating the achievement of our community.

We know that when you are called, you will give to your maximum capacity. We know you will be gracious. We are counting on you to open your heart and demonstrate the full extent of your devotion to enable our Jewish community to continue, with vigor and vitality, well into the next century.

Thank you in advance for your warm reception and generosity. Your participation will help our community continue a tradition of providing opportunities and quality services for all Jews.

Sincerely,

Ron Cherney

Naming of new Campus buildings

Dear Editor,

I have finished reading the Campaign Update, Issue No. 4 wherein it is stated that the buildings at the Broadview campus will bear the names of a single family in perpetuity. I recognize and approve of the dedication of various parts of a facility with commemorative plaques bearing the names of those who have been generous in their financial contribution. This is a long-established campaign procedure with proven result.

I am not of the same disposition when it involves the naming of a building which is constructed with monetary contributions of many and which will be maintained in the future with community resources. There are instances where a benefactor will finance the total cost of the facility and in such cases the naming of the building in his, her or family name may be appropriate.

The Campaign Committee has up to this time made little error, however, the naming of buildings is a major mistake and a contribution disincentive.

Norman Slover

Roger Greenberg, chair of the Community Capital Campaign, replies:

We appreciate your comments and interest in the Community Capital Campaign.

You are correct in your statement that community funds will he required to maintain and operate our new facilities once they have been huilt. Notwithstanding, a dedication opportunities campaign has heen a long-established fundraising practice throughout North America to raise the necessary capital funds to huild a facility in tbe first place. Included in this practice has been huilding naming. We need look no further than recent campaigns at the Civic Hospital and Carleton University for examples of facilities being named in honor of major donors, with individual components within the facility dedicated by other donors.

Without the availablity of major dedication opportunities, we would not be in a position to undertake the sizable campaign goal with confidence. Utilizing a proper mix of dedication opportunities for every level of giving, we have achieved outstanding success to date.

Together, we will achieve our dream of a new campus recognizing the full efforts of the entire community of donors permanently and prominently displayed on the "Wall of Honor" in the main lohby of the new JCC.

Join us for Registration Day and a Sneak Preview of the new campus

On September 8 – See it . . . Feel it . . . Be part of it

By Estelle Melzer

On Sunday, September 8, from 12:30 to 4:00 pm, the Jewish Community Centre will kick off its program year with its most exciting Registration Day ever. The JCC's annual Registration Day Fair will be combined with a Sneak Preview of the new Jewish Community Campus.

Everyone is invited to the Broadview/Kerr site to get a look at the shape of things to come – the new Hillel Lodge, the renewed Jewish School Building, and the state-of-the-art Jewish Community Centre facility.

More importantly, we hope to give everyone a look at the feel of things to come. The new JCC will be staked out and rooms marked off. Inside those rooms, there will be non-stop action all day long for all ages. Everyone is invited to come on down and join in.

Some of the activities are a Sneak Preview of the many new programs the JCC will be offering this fall.(This issue of Centrefold lists some of our 1996-97 programs. The complete Program Guide will be available September 1 from the JCC and will be sent to your home in the next issue of the Ottawa Jewish Bulletin.) Others are programs which will be offered in the new facility.

The day will be an ongoing kaleidoscope of action. Kids can enjoy creative crafts in the "art studio" or bubble fun in the "pool". Adults can try tallit-weaving, learn an Israeli dance or a Jewish song, join in a squaredance session. The athletically inclined can test their skill at Doug Frobel's batting cage, get tips from a golf pro or basketball coach, join an aerobics class, or try the Wheelchair basketball challenge against Canada's paralympic team. Everyone can try to win a prize at the ongoing Bingo game.

And to help envision the kind of excitement and buzz our new community campus will generate, the day will be full of special attractions – a Tunnels of Fun labyrinth, a Magic Show, a thrilling skateboard and BMX demonstration, juggling, face-painting, balloon animals and more.

As well, on Registration Day only, the JCC offers a 10% discount on membership fees plus a coupon book full of program discounts.

Everyone purchasing a membership will also have the chance to win the First Official Membership in the New Jewish Community Centre. Our First Member Draw will take place at the end of the day with great fanfare and our Official First Member's photo will be on the front cover of our next Centrefold.

Join us for Registration Day and a Sneak Preview of our new program year. The New JCC really is here and now. Become a member; be part of our present and future.

Super Summer '96 at JCC Day Camp

By Rhoda Levitan
JCC Day Camp Director

Atlanta may have had the publicity but JCC Day Camp was the place to be this summer. We've had a fabulous summer with 215 happy campers, any of whom can tell you how much fun camp is. Odds are they will also teach you a song or two.

Our staff, including Assistant Directors Gale Kardish and Cari Kerzner, the incredible, head staff, swim staff, twenty-five counsellors and thirteen C.I.T.'s, were, as my daughter would say, wicked! They are a dedicated, caring, enthusiastic group of Jewish teens and young adults. Our community should be very proud of each and every one of them.

What did we do at JCC Camp this summer? What makes our camp special and different from other camps?

The answer to the first question is a long one. Our campers learned to swim and improve their skills. They played lots of sports. They did an awesome variety of crafts including making mezuzah covers, jewellery and puppets, tie-dying and more. They sang lots of songs and let the neighbours hear their ruach (spirit).

In Mad Science, they did neat experiments and watched chicken eggs hatch. Yes, our campers witnessed the birth of five baby chicks!

In Performing Arts, they made masks, built their own puppet theatre, produced commercials and more.

Our camp went to Lake Phillipe and Mont Cascade for two glorious days of water fun. We had a sleepover, lots of barbecues and Oneg Shabbats.

We had our own Maccabiah, which generated as much enthusiasm and spirit as the Atlanta Games and a lot more fun.

Camp is also abuzz with excitement about our first camp play, to be performed August 14.

A quality program and full range of camp activities help make JCC Summer Camp special. Even more important is the warm atmosphere our camp creates. Our campers have laughed and played. They've made new friends each day. They have spent their summer in the best way possible — having a wonderful time.

PROJECT PRIDE

Being Jewish: A Journey of Discovery, Awareness and Pride

It's a first for Ottawa and a first for Eastern Canada! The JCC of Ottawa will host an Inter-city Teen Conclave, bringing together teens from Montreal, Toronto and other eastern Canadian cities to discuss their feelings about being Jewish in Canada today.

PROJECT PRIDE is a structured three-part workshop developed in Denver, Colorado by psychiatrist Dr. David Kazzaz and our own JCC Executive Director Ann Lynn Lipton. It is in the process of "going international" with a booklet, video, and workshop outline.

The program explores participants' feelings about being Jewish, gets them involved in examining their family's Jewish roots, asks them to think about their right to exist in Canada as a distinct culture — touching on the issues of assimilation, anti-semitism and acculturation — and finally elicits from them an "action plan" for expressing their Jewish pride. All age groups have responded to the program with tremendous enthusiasm.

Project Pride will be a truly MEMORABLE experience for our Canadian youth!

DON'T MISS IT!

Conclave participants will also celebrate Shabbat together, socialize at recreational activities, mingle and make new friends from other cities.

For more information or to volunteer for the Steering Committee call Andrea at 789-1818.

Junior Department welcomes new JCC Directors

By Estelle Melzer

The Jewish Community Centre is very pleased to welcome two new members to its Junior Program staff this fall. Joy Levine will be Director of Early Childhood Education and Mark Hecht will be Director of Children's Programming. They are replacing Gale Kardish who is on maternity leave for the year.

The Junior Department area has been reorganized into two age groups: Early childhood for ages 3 - 5; and school-age, for children 6 and over."We are extremely excited about our new Junior Department and are looking forward to growth and innovation," said JCC Executive Director Ann Lynn Lipton. "Joy and Mark bring a great deal of experience and enthusiasm to our Centre."

Joy Levine has a Bachelor of Education degree from McGill University with a specialization in Early Childhood Education.

Her background includes many years of working at various camps as a counsellor and arts and crafts and drama specialist. After moving to Ottawa she was employed as a nursery schoolteacher at Hillel Academy and a junior kindergarten teacher at Maimonedes school – and is remembered with great affection by many parents and children. She was a warm and creative teacher who provided an exceptionally enriching and welcoming environment for her students.

Our popular pre-school programming will, we are sure, become even more stimulating under Joy's direction.

Mark Hecht will be taking over programming for older children. Mark's formal education includes a Bachelor of Common Law degree from the University of Windsor and a Bachelor of Arts from McGill University. He is currently employed by the Human Rights Internet as the Children's Rights Co-ordinator and is responsible for advocacy projects for children and other related activities.

It is no coincidence that Mark is specializing in children's issues in his legal career.

Kids have been a long-time interest and concern for Mark. While in undergraduate and law school, Mark also had a parallel career working with children in a JCC setting. He was co-ordinator of student services at the Windsor Jewish Community Centre, planning programs for preteens, working as assistant director at summer camp and acting as advisor for B.B.Y.O.

He also worked at the Montreal YM-YWHA as assistant youth director and assistant camp director and taught in Windsor's afternoon Hebrew School, Temple Beth-El.

Mark's experience, organizational ability and wealth of ideas will be tremendous assets to our JCC.Watch for exciting new children's programs in upcoming issues of Centrefold.

ORGANIZATIONS AND PEOPLE

Star of David's passport to Jerusalem

The June 17 closing program for the students of Star of David Hebrew School consisted of a trip through a "Time Tunnel to Jerusalem". Each student was given a passport which allowed entry through the Jaffa Gate and at successive stops through the historical walk.

In the desert at Mount Sinai, the Grade 3 students presented their Chumash Program and then received a Torah for the commencement of their studies from principal Hennie Honigman, given in memory of her mother Jennie Halickman. All the students then proceeded to the City of David to learn about the Mishkan (portable sanctuary used by the Israelites in the desert) from the Grade 1 students. The trip also included the Walls of Jericho and a kibbutz.

The formal program began with the presentation of Certificates of Promotion by teachers Sue-zyn Kronick, Ella Fersht, Ora Friedman, Shelley Engel, Bonnie Lyman and Hennie Honigman.

The following prizes were awarded:

Siddur Readathon Award was presented by Hennie Honigman to Aaron Yachnin, Rachel Milliner, Jeremy Bitton, Zacarias Dube, Joel Baylin, Lev Bubis, Joel Cleroux, Anna Rotenberg, Jessica Bitton, Miriam Greenblatt, Claudia Crouse, Daniel Yachnin, Ilana Kronick, Jacqueline Greenblatt and Daniel Feldman.

Harry Hecht Holocaust Memorial Award was presented by Jennie Hecht to Megban Miller.

Harry and Jennie Hecht Award in memory of Lillian Ernest was presented to Anna Rotenberg and Benjamin Resnick for participation in the Holocaust and Jerusalem 3000 programs by Jennie Hecht.

1996 Principal Merit Awards were presented by Karen Ostroff, board co-chair, to Joel Baylin, Leah Moffat, Adam Pivko, Alexander Ostroff, Jacqueline Greenblatt, Myra Bloom and Daniel Yachnin for consistent work throughout the academic year.

Certificate of Achievement Awards in Hebrew subjects were presented by board member Judi Kerzner to Jeremy Bitton, Zacarias Dube, Zachary Logue, Rachel Milliner, Aaron Yachnin, Daniel Levin, Lindsay Gelfand, Marissa Kerzner and Jessica Bitton.

Guests were then invited to view the complete display of Israel projects and artwork made for this program before proceeding to the Israeli restaurant for a dinner of pita, salad, falafel and a Jerusalem 3000 cake.

Grade Two students enter the Jaffa Gate with their passports.

Things have changed since you went to school. Gone are the days when a summer job paid for tuition and still left you with enough money to have some fun. Today the cost of a 4-year university program is higher than ever before. By the year 2010, it could be as much as $100,000. And if you think getting an education is expensive, try going without one.

That's where I can help. I'll help you develop a complete financial plan that takes into account your current needs and your future goals, including your kid's education.

By planning now, you can ensure they have a brighter future.

JYL brings New York scribe to Ottawa

By Kinneret Globerman

His is a painstaking job, demanding the utmost precision. It requires a sharp eye and a steady hand. One mistake can nullify all the effort that preceded it. His tools are unique and the recipe he uses – a combination of tannic acid, ferrous sulphide, carbon and gum arabic – is highly specialized.

No, he is not an alchemist though he can turn simple paper into something wondrously spiritual. Rabbi Nota Kuperman is a scribe of holy scripture. With a goose-feather quill and a dab of ink, he transcribes portions of the Safer Torah and produces scrolls for tefillin and mezuzot. He does this eight hours a day, every day, except Shabbat.

Rabbi Kuperman brought his expertise to Ottawa recently as a guest of the Jewish Youth Library. Once here, he inspected tefillin and mezuzot to ensure they were kosher.

"There are a number of disqualifiers," says the rabbi. "The writing has to be perfect. The letters can't be cracked; they need to be shaped properly. If the letters are faded, it is not kosher." Any imperfections require disposal of the sacred object through burial; an unkosher mezuzah, it is believed, can cause misfortune.

"Tefillin and mezuzot bring blessings to a person's life," explains Kuperman, "and the Talmud says that the mezuzah provides protection over a house."

ORGANIZATIONS AND PEOPLE

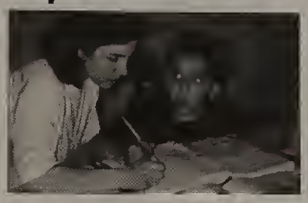
Ottawa native wins third prize in national poetry competition

Ottawa native Rafi Aaron, son of Ruth and Irving Aaron, has won third prize in the 1996 Canadian League of Poets national poetry competition. In a ceremony that took place at the National Gallery, Aaron read his winning poem entitled "This Is The Child" which was selected from over 4,500 entries.

A salute to his sister Carol Sussman and her 11-year-old son Joseph, who is hearing impaired, the poem recounts the story of a mother who refused to teach her son sign language and of a son who proved his mother's belief in him was justified.

Carol Sussman began teaching her child when he was only 18 months old how to interpret sounds and formulate letters. Once a week she took him to special classes. The poem relates their struggle and captures their crowning moment, "and this is him taking that long walk pushing through / the public school doors and stepping up to grade 1".

When asked to comment on the poem, Aaron said: "Growing up it was hard to impress me, I never had heroes. Now I have two of them."



Carol and Joseph Sussman are the subjects of an award-winning poem.

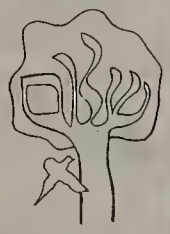
invites you to be part of our

HIGH HOLY DAYS SERVICES

and throughout the year



We would like you to come and be part of our HIGH HOLY DAYS services which are being held at the Ottawa Jewish Community Campus on Broadview Avenue and which you will find to be meaningful and rewarding.

We are delighted to welcome Rabbi Jan Kaufman who will provide the rabbinical leadership with some members of the congregation conducting the service.

Adath Shalom is a vibrant and growing Conservative congregation now in its 18th year. The congregation is affiliated with the Conservative movement and is an active member of the Jewish community.

We encourage equal participation by men and women, foster a spirit of chavurah, and demonstrate a strong interest in Jewish study. Our members lead the davening and lively discussions of the weekly parshas. At High Holy Days and at other times during the year, visiting rabbis compliment our member led services.

Shabbot Services are held each Saturday morning at the Jewish Community Campus on Broadview Avenue. For special occasions and family "simchas", larger facilities are available.

Children are especially welcome at Adath Shalom and many of our youth participate in parts of the services. Child care is also provided and a variety of interesting programs and activities for children are organized throughout the year.

We are an affordable synagogue with a special discount for first year memberships. Payments for High Holy Days seating may be applied to the cost of an annual membership. Associate memberships are available to members of other synagogues. We would like to have you learn and grow with us. KID LIT

Revitalizing golden oldies for today's child

KID LIT

DEANNA SILVERMAN

Parents and grandparents occasionally complain that the stories today's kids read or have read to them are not as good as the ones they remember from their own childhood. Yet, when they pull out those golden oldies their kids don't respond. Another example, some say, of the decline in standards. Television is to blame.

True, television has bad a major impact on book publishing. In balance, however, I think the impact for young children is more positive than negative. It has forced Kid Lit authors, illustrators and publishers to become even more visually creative.

The best proof of that lies in the fact that so many of the old stories are, in fact, being recycled specifically because they are ageless, child tested winners. But it is no longer simply a matter of reissuing the same old story told in the same old way.

Instead, fresh voices, presentation styles and interpretive modifications give those old stories the facelift they frequently need to attract, absorb and entertain today's child.

So if you have a favorite golden oldie that's getting nowhere with your child, look for it in modern garb. I'm willing to bet both you and your child will find it the winner you always knew it to be. And remember, with ageless stories modern garb can mean several years back.

Jonah and the Whale

By Marcia Williams
Walker Books 1989
Unpaged. Ages 4-8.

Bible stories are among the best golden oldies and the story of Jonah and the Whale is definitely a gripping tale. What more did it need?

Author/illustrator Marcia Williams decided to make the story accessible to younger children by giving it a simplified text, a more reassuring tone and a line by line, phrase by phrase pictorial presentation. To achieve these goals, she combined straight-forward explanatory narrative with a cartoon format and exuberant folk art style illustrations.

The result is a warm, witty, simple yet thoroughly absorbing retelling combined with detailed, friendly pictures that answer oodles of questions curious kids might ask. What else, for example, was in the whale's stomach? First class fun in an excellent introduction to a major Bible story.

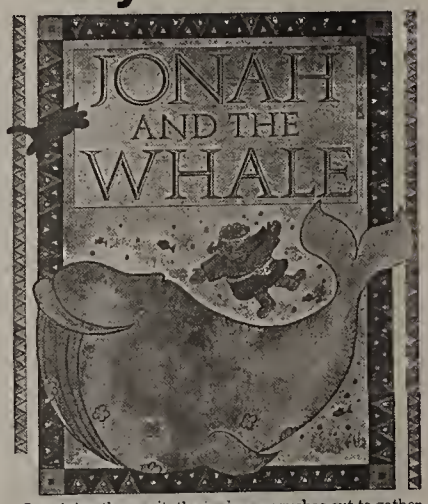
What His Father Did

By Jacqueline Dembar-Greene
Illustrated by John O'Brien
Houghton Mifflin Company 1992
Unpaged. Ages 4-8.

What His Father Did is one of many humorous stories about that legendary Jewish trickster, Herschel of Osterpol. Children may remember him as the hero of Eric A. Kimmel's popular book, Herschel and the Hanukkah Goblins.

In this story Herschel must walk from Minsk to Pinsk to visit a sick aunt. Undaunted at having only one kopek in his pocket, Herschel breaks the trip at a cozy inn halfway between the two villages.

After bargaining the innkeeper down to his one kopek for a place to sleep, Herschel demands supper. The innkeeper says she has no food. Whereupon Herschel issues his dastardly threat: "If you will give me nothing to eat, I shall have to do what my father did when he was given no supper!"



Imagining the worst, the innkeeper rushes out to gather food. She repeats Herschel's threat to the baker, the cheese seller and the fruit peddler. Convinced that they are protecting her from grave harm each merchant gives the innkeeper some food. Was she really in danger? Only Herschel knows.

Repetitive refrains, a cumulative storytelling style and John O'Brien's delightfully worrisome full color illustrations make this much told shaggy dog tale glow with irresistable energy and charm.

FROM SOUP TO NUTS

Here's a fast and simple summer menu

SOUP TO NUTS

DONNA KARLIN

Here is a summer menu that is simple to prepare and utilizes the fresh vegetables and fruits of the season. The marinade can be prepared ahead of time, the squash can be kept warm while the spinach is quickly cooking.

Peanut-Ginger Chicken with California Salsa

For 12 chicken thighs (about 2 lb), skinned

Marinade

1/2 cup hot water
1/2 cup creamy peanut butter
1/4 cup chili sauce
1/4 cup soy sauce
2 tbsp salad oil
2 tbsp vinegar
4 cloves garlic, minced
2 tsp grated fresh ginger or 1/2 tsp ground ginger
1/4 tsp ground red pepper

Salsa

1 cup chopped fresh fruit, such as peeled peaches, nectarines, pears or plums
1 cup chopped, seeded cucumber
2 tbsp thinly sliced scallions
2 tbsp snipped parsley
1 tbsp sugar
1 tbsp salad oil
1 tbsp vinegar
Peach, nectarine, pear or plum wedges

Rinse chicken thighs; pat dry with paper towels. Set aside. For marinade: in a small mixing bowl gradually stir hot water into peanut butter. (The mixture will stiffen at first.) Stir in chili sauce, soy sauce, the 2 tablespoons of oil, the 2 tablespoons vinegar, garlic, ginger and red pepper. Place the chicken in a plastic bag set in a shallow bowl. Pour marinade over chicken. Seal the bag and turn to coat chicken thighs with marinade. Chill for 12 to 24 hours, turning the bag occasionally. For salsa: in a medium mixing bowl combine chopped fruit, cucumber, green onion, parsley or cilantro, sugar, 1 tablespoon oil, and 1 tablespoon vinegar. Cover and chill for 1 to 2 hours. Heat barbecue on medium setting. Remove chicken from marinade. Discard leftover marinade. Place chicken on the grill. Lower the grill hood. Grill chicken for 35 to 45 minutes or until no pink remains. Turn constantly, making sure it doesn't burn. Garnish with fruit wedges. Spoon some salsa over; pass remaining. Serves 6.

Oriental Vegetable and Pasta Salad

8 oz. fine noodles or spaghetti
4 oz. asparagus spears, cut into 1" pieces
1/3 cup plum sauce
1 to 2 tbsp soy sauce
1/2 tsp Oriental sesame oil
1/8 tsp crushed red pepper
1 medium red sweet pepper, cut into strips
1 11-oz. can mandarin orange sections, drained
1 cup fresh or frozen sugar snap peas, halved crosswise
1/3 cup sliced scallions
1/3 cup toasted slivered almonds

Cook pasta according to package directions. Drain. Cover and chill. In a saucepan cook asparagus, covered, in a small amount of boiling water for 4 to 6 minutes or until tender-crisp. Drain. For dressing, stir together plum sauce, soy sauce, oil and crushed red pepper. In a bowl combine pasta, asparagus, sweet pepper, oranges, peas, scallions and almonds. Add dressing; toss to coat. Serve immediately. Serves 8 as a side dish.

Acorn Squash with Apricot Glaze

2 medium acorn squash (1 lb each)
1 medium apple, sliced (1 cup)
2 medium apricots, sliced or 1 peach peeled and sliced (2/3 cup)
1/4 cup apricot nectar
2 tbsp honey
1/4 tsp ground nutmeg
1 tbsp margarine

Halve squash lengthwise; remove and discard seeds. Place squash, cut side down, in a microwave-safe baking dish. Cook, uncovered, on High for 13 to 16 minutes or until just tender. Meanwhile, in a small bowl combine apple and apricot slices, nectar, honey and nutmeg. Turn squash over, cut side up. Spoon fruit mixture into squash cavities. Dot with margarine. Cook, covered with waxed paper, for 5 to 7 minutes or until fruit is hot. Sprinkle with additional nutmeg, if desired.

Fresh Spinach Toss

1 tbsp margarine
1 tbsp olive oil
2 cloves garlic, minced
1/4 tsp salt
Dash ground red pepper
1/4 cup raisins
2 tbsp pine nuts or pecans
12 cups torn fresh spinach (about 10 oz)

In a small microwave-safe bowl, cook margarine on High for 30 to 40 seconds or until melted; set aside. In a 3-quart microwave-safe casserole combine the olive oil, garlic, salt and red pepper. Stir in raisins and nuts. Cook, covered on High for 1 minute, stirring once. Add spinach. Spoon melted margarine over spinach. Toss well to coat. Cook, covered, on High for 2 to 3 minutes or until spinach is just wilted and heated through. Serves 4.

Notice of Unveiling

Family and friends are welcome

Ottawa Jewish Community Foundation offers creative alternatives for estate planning

Morris's sister Sylvia was recently widowed. She has, among other things, a stock portfolio which has increased in value greatly since it was acquired by her late husband, Chaim. She would like to establish a memorial to Chaim through the Ottawa Jewish Community Foundation (OJCF), but is concerned about her ongoing income. She has also been advised that if she sells the stocks, she will have a huge tax bill, which would reduce both her income and the amount she could donate to the OJCF. But there is a better way.

Instead of selling the stocks, Sylvia can make a gift to the OJCF in order to establish a foundation in memory of her husband. Since she still requires income, she will only gift a residual interest. This means that she retains the right to the income generated by the portfolio for her lifetime and the OJCF will retain the capital upon her death. The steps involved, and the results, are as follows:

- Sylvia can donate a residual interest in the portfolio to the OJCF, retaining a life interest which will entitle her to be paid the income generated by the portfolio for her lifetime.
- Sylvia can elect the value at which the transfer of the residual interest will take place. This value will also determine the amount of the charitable receipt she will receive, which will be used to shelter her ongoing income.
- The OJCF will sell the stock portfolio and, because it is a registered charity, will pay no tax on the disposition.
- The entire amount of the sale proceeds will be invested to provide an ongoing income for Sylvia for her lifetime.

This scenario is a win-win for all concerned. Sylvia is able to establish a memorial for her late husband and still maintain an ongoing income without having to incur a large tax bill. For the OJCF, a major gift has been made which, although delayed in terms of benefit, is assured and cannot be revoked at a later date.

This simple example demonstrates one of the ways the OJCF can be involved in finding creative solutions to carry out one's estate planning. Our staff and professional advisory board will be pleased to discuss your individual needs at your convenience.

Fabulous 4 bedrm 2 storey home in McKellar Park. Walk to Young Israel, Agudath Israel and the soon to be built new Jewish Community Centre.
This home must be seen to appreciate the careful planning and loving care that went into its construction, which is evident from the generous sized rooms, custom cabinetry and hardwood floors that make this truly a home for gracious living and entertaining.
This home sits on a large corner double lot with the garage and driveway unobtrusively around the corner. Must be seen to be appreciated.
